A commitment by the nominating Federation must accompany each nomination, stating that, if the candidate is elected, the Federation will be responsible for the full costs of travel and lodging involved in attendance at meetings (including the expenses of any interpreters) should the FIG be unable to offer any direct assistance in this regard nor find any other means of assistance.

An assurance must also be given that the nominee, if elected, will be provided with administrative support if required, and every facility to enable him/her to attend meetings. Federations have to distribute a curriculum vitae to promote their candidates.

A member who has been duly notified of a meeting has to apologize for being absent citing reasons.
